Date of transcription 1/16/80

On January 9, 1980, at 7:40 p.m., information was obtained from the FBI Office, Milwaukee, that Frank Balistrieri or associates might be at the Tyrolean Towne House, Room 104, 1673 S. 108th, West Allis, Wisconsin. Inasmuch as Frank Balistrieri's whereabouts were unknown at that time, an effort was made to determine if he was, in fact, at the Tyrolean Towne House.

Spot checks of Room 104 revealed no lights on or activity in the room. It was subsequently observed that a dark, late model, two-door Oldsmobile was also driving slowly, in a westerly direction, past Room 104. The vehicle exited the Tyrolean parking lot on the south side of the Tyrolean and stopped at the curb. Special Agent [redacted] [redacted] drove past the vehicle and noticed that it was occupied by a male and female who closely observed SA [redacted] SA [redacted] noted that the Oldsmobile had 1980 Wisconsin License [redacted]

b7C

SA [redacted] drove into the Grossman parking lot immediately south of the Tyrolean, parking to the north of the store door. The above Oldsmobile also drove into the Grossman lot and parked near 108th St. in a position where SA [redacted] car could be observed. Moments later, a white female, mid-thirties, black or dark hair, approximately 5'6" tall, exited the passenger side of the vehicle, walked past SA [redacted] vehicle, studying same, and into Grossmans store. It appeared that while she was in the store, she asked questions about SA [redacted] as it was noted that during her conversation with store employees, the store employees began looking out the window at SA [redacted] vehicle. The female then exited the store, again staring at SA [redacted] vehicle, and reentered the Oldsmobile. The white male driving the Oldsmobile was wearing a hat, but appeared much older than the female. He drove the Oldsmobile in a direction so as to pass immediately behind SA [redacted] vehicle.

b6

SA [redacted] then left the Grossman lot and parked behind (west side) the Tyrolean and joined SA [redacted] in his FBI vehicle. SA Dennis Condon also arrived in the area, and the three Agents noticed the Oldsmobile continue to circle the Tyrolean Towne House. Each time the Oldsmobile passed the FBI car occupied by SAs [redacted] the male and female stared at the Agents. The Oldsmobile was last observed by the Agents to be in the parking lot of the bowling alley immediately north of the Tyrolean. The Oldsmobile was only there for a few minutes, and Agents did not see it depart. As Frank Balistrieri was not located, the Agents also departed the area.

It was learned via a computer search of Department of Motor Vehicle records that the above Oldsmobile, Wisconsin License [redacted] was registered to [redacted] [redacted] Wisconsin.

Subsequently Agents [redacted] were advised by Senior Resident FBI Agent, [redacted], Madison, Wisconsin, that an inquiry had been made in person at Wisconsin Department of Motor Vehicles by one [redacted] [redacted] concerning the registration of FBI vehicle [redacted] driven by SA [redacted] and FBI vehicle [redacted] driven by SA [redacted]

The following investigation was conducted regarding ROY C. LANE:

A review of Milwaukee indices regarding LANE, FBI # 836 178 D, reflects him to have been the subject of MI 159-8, a Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1959 investigation initiated in 1961 and since destroyed. No further record noted.

On 5/22/80 [redacted] Postal Clerk, New Berlin, Wisconsin Post Office, advised that on 9/28/79, the Post Office received a change of address regarding LANE from 20516 West Downie Road, New Berlin, to 110 Tads Trail, Oldsmar, Florida 33557. The New Berlin residence formerly occupied by LANE is now occupied by FNU [redacted] and FNU [redacted]
